ECLIPSES FOR THE YEAR 1913.
In this year there will be five eclipses, three of the Sun and two of the Moon.
I. The first will be a total eclipse of the Moon, March 22nd, partly visible in the eastern United States, the moon setting eclipsed. The beginning will be visible in western North and South America, the Pacific Ocean, Australia, and the eastern border of Asia.
II. The second will be a partial eclipse of the Sun, April 6th, invisible in the United States except in California, Oregon, and Washington. Visible over the north eastern Pacific Ocean and Alaska.
III. The third will be a partial eclipse of the Sun, August 31st, invisible in the United States; visible in New Foundland, Labrador, and Greenland.
IV. The fourth will be a total eclipse of the Moon, September 15th, partly visible in the United States, only a small portion of the beginning being visible in the eastern states before the moon sets. The whole of the eclipse visible over the Pacific Ocean, Australia, and eastern Asia.
V. The fifth will be a partial eclipse of the Sun, invisible in the United States, visible on the southeast coast of Africa, Madagascar and the Antarctic continent.

The calculations for this Almanac have been carefully made for the latitude of Philadelphia, and are expressed in Eastern standard time. For places not on the standard meridian where standard time is kept, the following rule applies: For places west of the 75th meridian, add in the proportion of four minutes for each degree of difference of longitude; for places east, subtract. For moon's phases, eclipses, equinoxes and solstices, simply reduce from Eastern to required standard.

OUR YEAR OF JUBILEE.

The year 1913 is our year of jubilee. First and foremost, we are called upon to celebrate the 350th anniversary of the publication of the Heidelberg Catechism. Two hundred years ago, the first Palatins were building their homes in the Schoharie Valley in New York. Then there are other more modern events which it is well for our people to recall. The year 1863 was in many respects the most brilliant in the history of the Reformed Church in this country. That date marked the close of the formative period of our history and the beginning of an epoch of growth which in 1913 gives the Reformed Church a communicant membership of over 300,000. The celebration in that year of the 300th anniversary of the publication of Heidelberg Catechism stirred the whole Church and roused her to unusual activities. In the same year, the General Synod was organized. At that Synod, the Home and Foreign Mission Boards were re-organized, the Sunday School Board was created, and action was taken which led to the founding of Bethany Orphans' Home. These events should be recalled by our people in a spirit of thankfulness to God, and with a re-dedication in faith, unity and zeal, to the furtherance of His kingdom on earth.

HEIDELBERG AND THE CASTLE, GERMANY.

THE REFORMED CHURCH ALMANAC AND YEAR-BOOK.

Fifty years ago Dr. Harbaugh was at work on our first English Almanac. It was one of the first fruits of the spirit of the Tercentenary Celebration. It was published late in 1863 and was, of course, the Almanac for the year 1864. It was heralded with delight as an annual messenger "well calculated to do good and advance much profitable religious intelligence concerning our Church." It contained thirty-eight pages. It was unornate. But it is interesting as the beginning of a day of bigger things. Each year since then, the Reformed Church Almanac has been printed. In more recent years, there has been a second Almanac printed, under the auspices of the Ohio Synod. This year again there is one English Almanac for the whole Reformed Church, and is known as the Almanac and Year-Book of the Reformed Church in the United States.

With its exhibits of the varied and multiplied activities of the Reformed Church along all lines, at home and abroad, with its illustrations, its statistics, and its summaries, it is sent with a greeting to the families of the Reformed Church, and with the hope that it may be a sign of unity, generous co-operation, and enthusiasm in the work of our common Master.

UNIFICATION.

At different times in the immediate past efforts have been made to bring about the publication of such an Almanac and Year-Book as is now presented to the Church. The present spirit of the Church seemed to justify it. The desirability of such a united publication was still further emphasized by the fact that the Publication and Sunday School

THE COURTYARD, HEIDELBERG CASTLE—GERMANY.

Boards of the Church, during the year 1912, carried into effect that union approved of by the General Synod and endorsed by the three district Synods. Both these Boards for years had been rendering good service. Along some lines, however, they were rivals in business. Now they have become one in the Publication and Sunday School Board of the Reformed Church, the aim of which is to further every interest of our Reformed Zion by publishing good literature and by lending substantial aid wherever found practical. The Publication and Sunday School Board, together with the Board of Foreign Missions, the Board of Home Missions, the representatives of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, and of the Mission Study Department are housed in the Reformed Church Building at Fifteenth and Race Streets, Philadelphia, a picture of which is found opposite our first calendar page. This picture represents not only the building in its present form but the property adjoining, which now belongs to the Publication and Sunday School Board, and which ground, it is expected, will soon be entirely covered by the enlarged Reformed Church Building. This in many ways will be advantageous. It is highly desirable if the Building is to house all the Boards of the Church, free of rent, that there be additional room by which a revenue can be secured for the maintenance of the Building itself. The project is worthy the generous financial aid of the Church.

Fifty thousand dollars in direct gifts or in the form of annuities would justify the Board in beginning work on the new addition. This sum should be contributed during this jubilee year.

THE PALACE AT AUGSBURG, WHERE ELECTOR FREDERCK III. DEFENDED THE CATECHISM.

THE 350th ANNIVERSARY OF THE PUBLISHING OF THE HEIDELBERG CATECHISM.

During this year, the 350th anniversary of the publishing of the Heidelberg Catechism will be celebrated by the Reformed Church. The Classes and Synods will hold anniversary services. The anniversary should be observed by every local church. This will furnish a fine opportunity to remind our people of the origin of the Reformed Church, to tell the public at large whence we have come, and to stir the Church to renewed and united effort along all lines of practical work. It will be profitable to examine again the reasons for the publication of the Heidelberg Catechism.

The Heidelberg Catechism is the fairest flower of the Reformation. In many respects it is unexcelled. It is in a class by itself. "It has Lutheran sincerity, Melancthonian clearness, Zwinglian simplicity, and Calvinistic fire." The Elector Frederick of the Palatinate was its foster-father. Ursinus and Olevianus were its editors. It taught the things commonly believed among the Reformed people. It united all those who belonged to the Reformed household of faith. It will be well for us, if in our day, we can in our own language give the same fair witness to the truth of Christ.

THE DEFENSE OF THE HEIDELBERG CATECHISM.

One of the fine pages in Reformed Church history is that which sets forth the defense of the Heidelberg Catechism by Elector Frederick III of the Palatinate. The Catechism, though so mild and pacific, became, as soon as it was published, the object of hatred and of the most violent conflict. All manner of charges were brought against it. The Elector was assailed and threatened with the loss of his kingdom. The Emperor of Germany commanded him to appear before the Diet at Augsburg in 1556. It looked as if the Emperor would condemn the Catechism and depose Frederick. But Frederick made so noble a defense, and so revealed his own simple but virile faith, that he went away from the Diet crowned with honor. The best 16th Century Confession was vindicated.

THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE PALATINE IMMIGRATION.

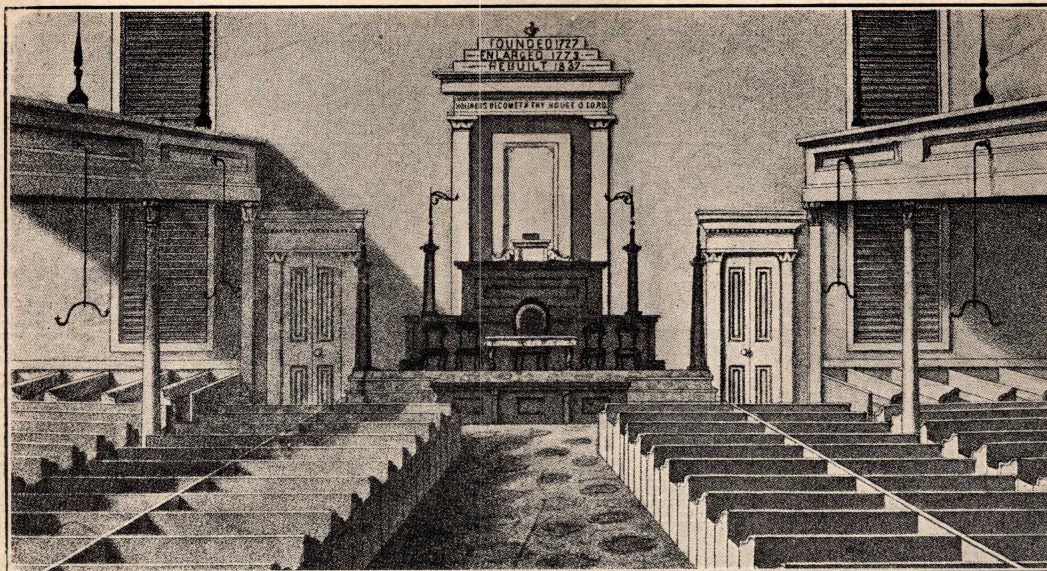

Two hundred years ago, that is in 1713, the first representatives of the Palatines, from the neighborhood of Heidelberg, Germany, arrived in this country and settled in the Schoharie Valley, New York. They had left their homes on the other side because the valley of the Neckar and the Rhine was laid waste by the French. After suffering great privations and hardships, after having been defrauded by their English neighbors, many of them with their families travelled through the forests to the upper waters of the Susquehanna and arrived at last in the fertile Lebanon valley. For the next forty years, they were followed by many of their countrymen whose descendants are a great multitude in Pennsylvania, central Maryland, the Shenandoah valley, and Ohio. A great majority of them sailed from the harbor at Rotterdam.

INTERIOR OF THE OLD RACE STREET CHURCH, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THE TERCENTENARY CELEBRATION.

One of the finest things ever done by the Reformed Church in the United States was the holding of the Tercentenary Celebration in 1863, when the whole Church recalled the 300th anniversary of the publication of the Heidelberg Catechism. Its promoter was Rev. Dr. Henry Harbaugh. The celebration was a "sublime festival service to God." It opened with a general convention in the Reformed church at Fourth and Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., Rev. Dr. J. H. Bomberger, pastor, on January 19, 1863. It was attended by a majority of the ministers of the Church, accompanied by a large number of elders. This festival closed with a second convention held in Reading, in May, 1864. During the whole intervening fifteen months, the pastors and elders, inspired with zeal by listening to the splendid addresses on the origin, history and genius of the Heidelberg Catechism, returned to their homes and organized festival services in the local congregations. The results of the Tercentenary Celebration were highly beneficial. In it, the church seemed to awake to a sense of her own worth and of her mission. Free-will offerings were abundant. In the Eastern Synod alone, nearly $110,000 were given to the various benevolent objects of the Church. Nearly $40,000 were received by Franklin and Marshall College. It was the beginning of an epoch of growth and advancement. It would be a splendid thing if, during this year, there could be a practical revival of faith and of good works. Surely the time is ripe now when the Reformed Church should as one body, with united force, with renewed zeal, with a fresh consciousness of her mission under the leadership of Jesus Christ, go forward upon a new epoch of growth and advancement.

THE ORGANIZATION OF GENERAL SYNOD.

Following the celebration of the 300th anniversary of the publication of the Heidelberg Catechism the General Synod, which is now the highest legislative and executive body of the Reformed Church, was organized. It met in Grace Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., of which Rev. Dr. George B. Russell was pastor. Rev. Dr. John W. Nevin was elected President. Rev. Isaac H. Reiter was the first Stated Clerk. The General Synod became the official expression of the unity of the Church. Together with the Tercentenary Celebration, it marked the end of the formative period of the Reformed Church and the beginning of her modern history. Since then, as a Church we have been making real history and genuine progress. We have had our differences, our conflicts, our hot debates, but we have come through them undivided and strengthened. We will continue to have our differences and maintain our liberty, but in all and through all, we will remain one Church, with a history of which we can, in a godly way, be proud.

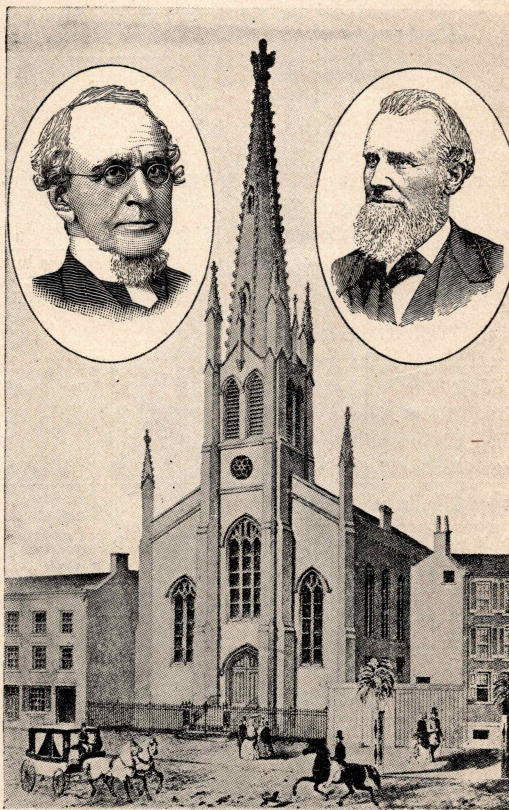

THEN AND NOW.

Fifty years ago when the General Synod was organized the Reformed Church had 447 ministers, 1099 congregations, and 98,775 members. She gave for all benevolent purposes $19,528,841. According to the latest statistics, the Reformed Church now has 1209 ministers and 34 licentiates, 1750 congregations, 300,952 members, a Sunday School enrollment of 299,950, monies contributed for benevolent objects $492,411, for congregational purposes $1,989,110. Surely the Lord has blessed us and made us strong. But what He has done for us and what we have become are but guarantees of the things

He has in store for us if we will now and in the future faithfully serve Him.

THE HUNGARIAN DAILY SCHOOL AT HOMESTEAD, PA.

The picture on page 19 represents the children of the Hungarian Vocational School at Homestead at their annual picnic. Such daily religious schools are held in each of our Hungarian missions during July and August. Besides the usual subjects taught in the ordinary school, the young people are instructed in matters pertaining to religion. In this particular school 56 children were enrolled, 20 taking catechetical instruction from the pastor and were later confirmed.

Jenners and Acosta, Somerset Co., Pa., new mission points, are typical new mining towns. The population of Jenners is about 1800; of Acosta, about 1200, of which a large part are foreigners.

Neither place has a church so the field is wide open. A hall at Jenners and a remodeled company house at Acosta are used for services. There should be a church at each place.

DAVID LIVINGSTONE.

DAVID LIVINGSTONE.

In Westminster Abbey the visitor, wandering about studying the monuments and inscriptions, comes in the middle of the nave upon a large black slab set in the floor bearing these words:

Brought by Faithful Hands over land and sea
here rests

DAVID LIVINGSTONE,
Missionary, Traveler, Philanthropist,
Born March 19, 1813,
at Blantyre, Lanarkshire.
Died May 4, 1873,
at Chitambo's Village, Llala.

On the right border of the stone is a Latin sentence, and along the left border:

Other sheep I have which are not of this fold, them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice.

This is the resting place of the body, but not of the heart, of the Scotch weaver lad who went out from his simple home unknown and died as one of the greatest and most honored of men.

The centennial of his birth will be celebrated this year throughout Europe and America and on all Mission Fields. He belongs to the Church Universal. The story of his life is a splendid one. It should be read and studied by all who are interested in the extension of the kingdom of Christ throughout the world. A copy of his life should be in every church, Sunday School and family library.

THE SUMMER MISSIONARY CONFERENCES.

The Summer Training Conferences of the Missionary Education Movement of the United States and Canada were inaugurated July 18, 1902. Such conferences are now being held by 47 Mission Boards, including the Home and Foreign Mission Boards of the Reformed Church. During the close of 1912, the Missionary Education Movement urged the study of a text book on Home Missions as a preparation for the Home Mission Week—November 12-24, 1912. Beginning with January 1st, 1913, it urges the study of a text book on Foreign Missions to continue until March 19 when will be celebrated the centennial of the birth of David Livingstone.

THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

At Pittsburgh, in '63, the General Synod created a Sunday School Board and appointed the following members: Rev. Dr. J. H. A. Bomberger; Dr. E. V. Gerhart; Dr. S. H. Giesy; Dr. B. Bausman; Dr. G. W. Williard; Dr. P. C. Prugh and Elders C. Santee and G. S. Griffith. Dr. Schaff gave a donation of $500 to be used by the Sunday School Board for German Sunday School publications. At that time there were in the Reformed Church 894 Sunday Schools with an enrollment of 17,404. During the half century since then our Sunday Schools have prospered so that today their membership is practically equal, if not larger, than the communicant membership of the church. This is a splendid growth. Many Schools have been enlarged and made stronger through the establishment of the Home Department, the Cradle Roll, Teacher Training Classes and the Organized Adult Class. From infancy to old age everyone is expected, in these modern times, to be a member of the Sunday School. The business of the Publication and Sunday School Board, among other things, is to foster the Sunday School and so care for the children of the church.

TEACHERS AND GRADUATES, 1912, LITERARY AND THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENTS, NORTH JAPAN COLLEGE, SENDAI.

The year 1913 marks the Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of the Board of Foreign Missions. Such an anniversary deserves recognition on the part of the Church by special gifts for the work in Japan and China.

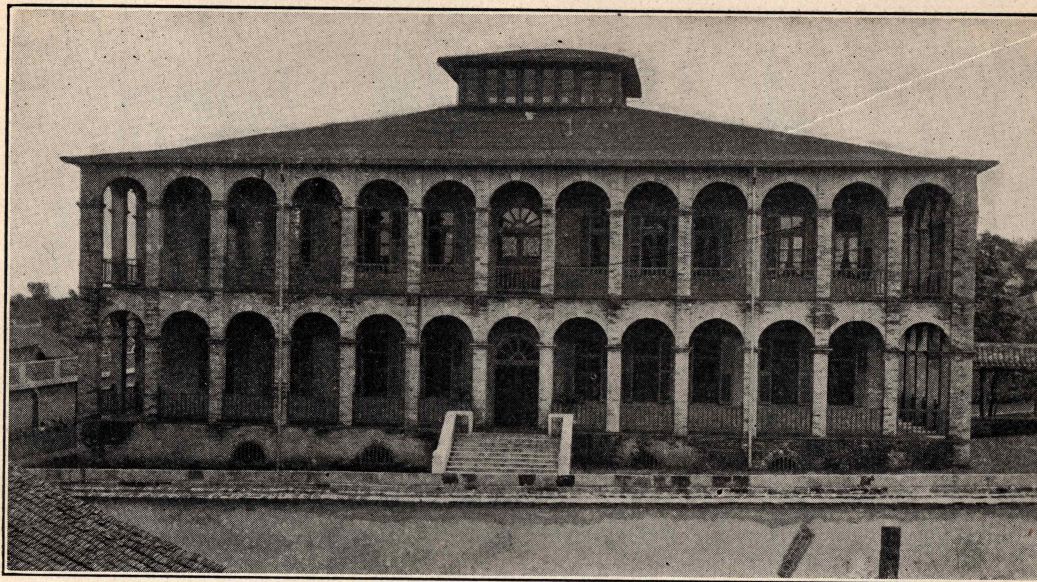

Foreign Mission Day on February 9th, 1913 will afford a fine opportunity for our congregations and Sunday Schools to attest their interest by liberal offerings in the spread of the Gospel among the non-Christian peoples of the world.

There are 410 students in our North Japan College and 145 in the Miyagi Girls' School at Sendai, Japan. A better class of students and more thorough work are encouraging signs.

TEACHERS AND GRADUATES, 1912, NORTH JAPAN COLLEGE SENDAI.

GIRLS' SCHOOL,

YCHOW, CHINA.

The new Girls' School building at Yochow City cost $7,053.34.

The Chinese people are doing in a few years what Christian nations have done in generations. Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the great leader in the New China, said: "I hope that by obeying the voice of heaven and the people, I may be able to establish a Kingdom of God on earth and make the government of the Republic pure and righteous."

The queue has been worn in China since 1644. Today none are to be seen in the cities on the coast and very few even in the interior.

The Famines in China impose great burdens on the missionaries. Dr. William Kelly did heroic service during the past year in ministering to the needs of the starving millions.

The need for physicians, nurses, teachers and evangelists in China is great. Who will go to work in our Stations at Yochow or Shenchowfu?

To do the work that needs to be done now in our two foreign missions will require $250,000 annually. There is only one way to obtain this amount, and that is by a large increase of individual givers.

The new Emperor of Japan, Yoshihita, who is only 33 years old, has chosen for the motto of his reign, "Taisei" (Great Righteousness).

Two out of three people in the world live in non-Christian lands. Two out of three of these non-Christian people have never heard of the Gospel. Two out of three people in the Christian Church give nothing toward the work of Missions at home or abroad.

There are nearly five million Christians in the Protestant Churches alone in the heathen world.

A low estimate of the property of our Church in Japan and China is $275,000.00. We have a Christian constituency of about 5000.

Rev. Elmer H. Zaugg of our Japan Mission is the Christian Endeavor Missionary. Our Young People's Societies are invited to contribute towards his support.

The Station plan is a most attractive form of helping the work in Japan and China. The cost of an out-station varies from $200 to $600.

Japan has over 1,000 missionaries.

China has 1,500,000 native Christians.

More than 5,000,000 Bibles have been circulated in Japan.

There are about 20,000 Christian missionaries in the world with 100,000 native helpers.

There are 1558 walled cities in China. Only 400 of them have resident missionaries.

The Missionary Societies at work in China have over 950 ordained missionaries and 178,000 communicants.

THE REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES.

Its Origin and Character.

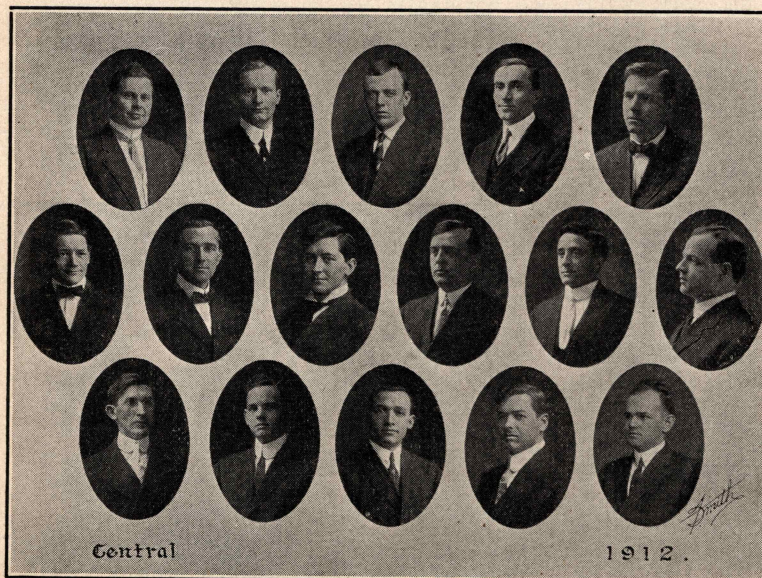

The church historian, Dr. Schaff, divides Protestantism into two branches, the Lutheran and Reformed. They originated about the same time, in the second decade of the Sixteenth Century. The leader of the Lutheran branch was Martin Luther of Germany (1483-1546); and of the Reformed branch, Ulric Zwingli of Switzerland (1484-1531). After Zwingli's death John Calvin became the controlling personality of the Reformed churches.

The two branches of Protestantism are subdivided into numerous denominations. The Reformed movement spread over Europe and became an organized church in many countries. In Holland we have the Dutch Reformed; in Germany, the German Reformed; in France, the Huguenots; in Scotland, the Presbyterians. The churches of the Reformed type, unlike the Lutheran, did not keep one name or one confession to bind them together. They are, however, animated by a common spirit which appears in their cults, polity and doctrine, and which makes them members of one spiritual household. The names given to the various Reformed churches were taken from the land in which they were established, or from the form of government, or from some other prominent characteristic. In the broadest sense, then, the Reformed churches are all those Protestant denominations which are not Lutheran nor Anabaptist. Their membership throughout the world is according to Professor Kattenbusch, 100,000,000—57,000,000 in America.

The Reformed Church in the United States is a member of the Reformed family of churches and is composed mainly of the descendants of German, Swiss and French Reformed people who settled in this country. The prevailing national elements are German and Swiss; but these, in the last 175 years, have been so thoroughly Americanized and Anglicised that the official name was changed in 1863 from "The German Reformed Church" to "The Reformed Church in the United States." Historically its nearest kin are the Dutch Reformed, the Presbyterians, and the Congregationalists. Yet it differs in some respects from these churches, a difference which is largely due to the German genius and to the development of a distinctive type of doctrine and life since the Sixteenth Century.

The characteristic doctrines of this denomination are found in the Heidelberg Catechism, published in the Palatinate, Germany, in 1563. It is considered one of the most irenic confessions of Protestantism, and on that account has been designated as a most acceptable basis for the reunion of Reformed Churches. It avoids the extreme of Calvinistic predestination on the one hand, and of the Lutheran corporal real presence on the other. It lays stress upon the mystical union of the believer with Christ through the word of God. In this way it escapes a lifeless ecclesiasticism, a lawless fanaticism, and a magical sacramentarianism. While it has the highest regard for church organization—the ministry, the sacraments, and the forms of worship—it considers these only as means by which the truth of the Gospel is revealed and confirmed in the mind and heart of the believer. "The Holy Ghost works faith in our hearts by the preaching of the Holy Gospel, and confirms it by the use of the Holy Sacraments." (Heid. Cat.) It is a tolerant church, recognizing the authority and equality of other denominations. This it can do consistently because it does not find the essence of Christianity in a particular doctrine, rite, or polity. It does not limit the true Church by a definition of the real presence, by a mode of baptism, or by a form of organization. These are matters of secondary import, not essential to the being of the Church. The basis for Christian fellowship between the churches is the Christ-life in the believer. Where that exists we find brethren, regardless of the name; where that is wanting we have no fellowship, however lofty the claims may be.

It is an educational church. True to the ideal of "the Church of the Word," it has always practised Christian nurture in the family, in the school, and in the catechetical class. Children of Christian parents are to be reared as members of the Church and children of God. It has insisted on an educated ministry. Alongside of the mission church a school house was usually erected by the early settlers. Colleges and seminaries were founded as soon as possible by their descendants. It believes in a preparation of the child for confession of faith and full church membership by educating the reason and conscience in the word of God. It is not by ecclesiastical performances, or by fanatical excitement that faith is wrought in the heart, but by the light and warmth of God's truth and love. True enthusiasm and piety are the fruit of the Word in the believer.

It stands for applied Christianity. Patriotism and religion cannot be separated. The industrial life must be permeated by the principles of the Gospel. The indisputable evidence of conversion is Christian morality. It is not enough to get men into heaven; we must get heaven into men. The purpose of the Church is not simply to reach the individual, but to bring society and government under the power of the Christ.

In point of time, the Reformed Church in the United States is among the oldest Protestant churches. In point of its past history, it is the martyr Church of Protestantism. In point of its genius, it is the most liberal and yet most protestant of all churches in Christendom. Owing to its German origin, it has not advanced as rapidly as the English denominations. Yet it has taken a noble part from colonial times in the education, civilization and Christianization of a substantial portion of our great Republic.

¶ What the trade journal is to the merchant, or the technical paper to the manufacturer, or the literary magazine to the student,

The Religious Paper Is to the Christian.

He simply cannot do without it and not suffer loss.

He needs its news of the kingdom.

He needs its reports of his own church.

He needs its solutions of the practical problems of Christian life and religious work.

He needs it as a school of methods.

He needs its inspiration as, like a shuttle, it weaves the scattered threads of religious news and spiritual influence into one great fabric.

Rev. Gerard B. F. Hallock, D. D., says:

"Let me urge all to include in their reading good religious periodicals. They are the trade journals of the Kingdom. The religious newspaper is both a medium of communication and a herald of Christian achievement. It is an absolute necessity if one would keep informed of the progress of Christ's Kingdom in the world. A good religious periodical tends to expand the intellect, open the heart, incite to more diligent study of the Bible, lead to greater interest in Sunday-school, church and mission work, and widen the whole mental, moral and spiritual outlook, thus proving a powerful stimulus to spiritual growth. Every young convert taking such a publication would find it confirming his faith, widening his horizon, and strongly promoting his growth in grace. Every Christian young man or young woman alone in a great city would find it bringing welcome and helpful companionship, and a fine source of intellectual and spiritual uplift. No young married couple, next to the Bible and family altar, can afford to do without a thing so desirable as a good Christian periodical."

GERMAN HOSPITAL :- 3305 FRANKLIN AVE. CLEVELAND OHIO

¶ This institution is under the supervision of a "Society for the Relief of the Sick and Needy."

¶ Our Training School for Nurses affords most excellent opportunities for young women who wish to devote themselves to nursing.

¶ Our Hospital has thus far proven itself to be one of the best of its kind. During the past year we have been crowded for room. The Society for the Relief of the Sick and Needy therefore decided at its last annual meeting to erect a suitable fire-proof addition as soon as possible. It is to be ready for occupancy by the spring of 1913. We feel assured that our friends will stand by us in the erection of this addition which will cost no less than $30,000, thereby enabling the institution by the help of God to continue its blessed work for the sick and needy.

¶ For further information respecting admittance to the Training School, and nursing and medical attendance, etc., address the Superintendent of the institution.

THE PASTOR HIS OWN EVANGELIST

Introduction by J. Wilbur Chapman, D. D.

THIS volume contains the most practical evangelistic help that a pastor can get. Two weeks, services planned and prepared - texts, suggestions, seed thoughts, illustrations - in such abundance, that it will take years to exhaust the book's resources. Every pastor who is called upon to carry on special revival meetings will welcome the inspiration and guidance furnished by this volume and it will be indispensable to those preachers whose church depend on them personally to conduct such meetings.

Barlow's Indigo Blue

THE TRIED AND TRUE
WASH BLUE OF AMERICA

It is over fifty years since this article was discovered and introduced to the public for blueing clothes. Many attempts have been made to imitate it, but none have succeeded to equal it in quality. It is the purest and strongest, will not spot or streak the clothes, nor injure the finest fabric. Few articles have the endorsement of the public for a half century unless the quality merits it. This endorsement Barlow's Indigo Blue has well earned, making it the standard Blueing throughout the country.

Trade Mark is registered and we caution the trade against handling goods imitating style and appearance.
